1st International Language-for-All Conference

A seed of change...

DEDICATION

The 1st International Language-for-All Conference is dedicated to the Founding Director of SoFL of Çukurova University, Emeritus Prof. Dr. F. Özden EKMEKÇİ.

ABOUT

Welcome

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to warmly welcome you to the SoFL 1st International Language-for-All Conference (LFAC) to be held on 21 – 22 October 2022 in Çukurova University, Adana, Turkey. The event will take place for the first time to bring scholars together, to explore the latest trends and challenges in the field, benefit from the network with leading members of academia from all over the world and exchange ideas and precious experiences.

The world is going through an era in which people are facing global-wise and country-wise issues in education – an ongoing pandemic of Covid-19, inadequacies in adapting to the new mode of teaching and learning, insufficient digital competence, lack of appropriate resources, and reluctance to transform deep-seated constructs. These issues triggered our motivation to hold this conference.

We aim to rediscover the depths of language as a seed of change to convey messages from past to present and future by gently exchanging ideas, raising awareness and increasing motivation to share and embrace one another's world.

Let language be your mirror...!

PROF. DR. ERDOĐAN BADA

Prof. Dr Erdođan BADA has received his PhD in Applied Linguistics from the University of Exeter, UK. He is a member of the teaching staff of the ELT Department of the Faculty of Education, ukurova University, and currently, is the Dean of the Faculty of Education, and Vice-Rector of Hakkari University. His interest areas cover Applied Linguistics, EFL and English Language Teacher Training.

PROF. DR. CEM BALÇIKANLI

Cem BALÇIKANLI works as a professor in the ELT Department of Gazi University in Turkey. He taught Turkish in the University of Florida between 2008 and 2009 as a Fulbright scholar. He has been the editor in chief of the Journal of Language Learning and Teaching (www.jlsl.org) since 2011. His professional interests include learner/teacher autonomy, the role of technology in language learning/teaching, and second language teacher education. He is the author of three books "50 Soruda Dil Öğrenme" and "Çocuğum İngilizce Öğreniyor" (with Prof. Dr. Kemal Sinan ÖZMEN) and a children's book "Yabancı Dil Perisi."

Andrew Bosson

My name is Andrew Bosson and I have worked for over twenty-five years as an educational professional. I have occupied various roles in this time, including several years managing both a Teacher Education and ESOL department in an Adult Education College in England. I currently teach English to students at Sabancı University in İstanbul. I am also very lucky to have the opportunity to deliver professional development training sessions for teachers in Turkey and around the world. I very much appreciate these opportunities to share my ideas and learn from colleagues.

Full Paper Format

Title and abstract

Please give your article a brief and clear title; use Times New Roman 12 pt. centred and bold. Begin your article with an informative abstract of no more than 250 words summarizing your main points; use Times New Roman 10 pt. and single line spacing. Put 3-5 keywords conveying the main content of your study below your abstract.

Authors

All authors will be listed on the first page below the title of the article; use Times New Roman 10 pt. centred. In the case of multiple authorship, names will appear in the order in which contributors provide them. The affiliation(s) of the author(s) should be indicated in the footnote by adding their country.

Format

All papers should be written in APA 7 format and consist of 4000 words long at most. Besides, the papers should be submitted in MS Word and 12 font size format only.

Headings should be short and subheadings should be used in order to be clear. Paragraphs should be Single-spaced.

Tables and appendices should be included in the word count, but the abstract and list of references may be excluded.

Visual data, such as tables, diagrams, and charts, should be labelled and numbered properly in your paper. Margins of the pages are: Top 2.54 cm, Bottom 2.54 cm, Left 3.18 cm, Right 3.18 cm.

List of References

Please give full bibliographical details of references and list them in alphabetical order of author, following the APA 7 format. Page numbers for journal articles should be truncated where possible. However, no page ranges are required for books.

Evaluation Process

All papers will be subjected to double-blind peer reviews, evaluating the accuracy and appropriateness of relevancy, method, findings, results, implications, ethical conduct and so on. They should be clearly and coherently written so that the contents are internally consistent.

Papers that are accepted will be published as full paper in the Conference proceedings.

Academic Ethics

The papers submitted to the conference should deliver original and unpublished findings. Thus, plagiarism cannot be tolerated and in case of plagiarism detection, the papers will be excluded from the conference program.

The language of the conference is English.*
